

A guide for your mapping project.

Defining Your Question

Write your question here:

Literature Review

a) History of Mapping Your Subject:

b) History of Cartographically Answering Your Question:

Inspiration from Existing Maps

a) Structure:

Which maps have effective layouts, hierarchies, and organizational principles that you can adopt? Provide examples and explain why.

b) Style:

Which maps have visually appealing aesthetics, color palettes, and design elements that resonate with your project? Provide examples and explain why.

c) Storytelling:

Which maps effectively convey a narrative, highlight key insights, and engage the viewer? Provide examples and explain why.

d) Content/Theme:

Which maps cover similar themes or topics and present data in compelling ways? Provide examples and explain why.

Next Steps

Use your answers to these questions to start your Final Project Proposal. For more guidance, see the Final Project Assessment Outline.